A saree is a lasting, elegant and perfect for indian weddings and festive celebrations. Whether it is a grand wedding function or Diwali festivities, the right kind of styling can transform your saree look from being simple to stunning . Here are some of the trendy and classic saree styling ideas to help you stand out this season.

Classic Silk Saree with Statement Jewellery

Traditional silk sarees never go out of style. Opt for rich weaves such as Kanjivaram saree or Banarasi saree for weddings. You can pair them up with jewellery, a bold choker, and matching jhumkas. Complete the look with a neat bun adorned with a fresh gajra for a royal touch.

This styling works beautifully for bridal functions, receptions and major festivals

Belted Saree for a Modern Twist

Add a stylish belt to your saree to create a structured silhouette. A metallic or embroidered waist belt not only enhances your curves but also keeps folds in place. This trend is perfect for cocktail nights, sangeet ceremonies or festive parties.

You can pair it with a sleeveless or embellished blouse for a modern Indo-Western vibe.

Experiment with Blouse Designs

Your blouse can completely change the look of your saree. Try

- Heavily embroidered blouses
- Backless or tie-up designs
- Full-sleeve velvet blouses for winter weddings
- Puff sleeves for a vintage charm
